

The Canadian Cancer Society is there for all cancer patients and their families when they need it.
Just a phone call away for rural and remote communities.

Friday, June 12, 2009
7:15 - 8:15 am
Prince George Civic Centre
Light breakfast available.

Join Sandra Kreukl, PHD, Manager, Cancer Information Service and Cancer Connection to:

- find out how Cancer Information Service and CancerConnection peer support programs work for people living with cancer
- learn how continuous evaluation and quality improvements contribute to the development of Cancer Information Service and CancerConnection databases and service delivery
- uncover the information and support cancer patients seek—based on an evaluation conducted by the Centre for Behavioural Research and Evaluation
- increase your confidence in referring cancer patients and their families to the Canadian Cancer Society
